Re: Comcast of Northern California II, Inc. – Notice of Operation Under State-Issued Video Franchise in Paradise, California

Dear Mr. Rough:

By this letter, we hereby notify the Town of Paradise that Comcast of Northern California II, Inc. ("Comcast") is now providing continued video service in Paradise pursuant to a state-issued video franchise, in lieu of the former local franchise, consistent with California's recent state video franchise law. In its capacity as the state franchising authority under the Digital Infrastructure and Video Competition Act of 2006 (See Cal. Pub. Util. Code § 5800, et seq.), the California Public Utilities Commission issued a California video franchise certificate that gives Comcast the right to offer video service in Paradise pursuant to state authority. The certificate is dated January 2, 2008. A copy of the franchise certificate is enclosed for your records.

Should you have any questions about this, please contact me by phone at 415-765-0369, or by email at prosvall@cwclaw.com.

Sincerely,
